Microlocal methods for dynamical systems

Maciej Zworski

Abstract: The mini course will present (from scratch) basic concepts of microlocal analysis with the stress on wave front set calculus and propagation results. They will then be applied to show how to study dynamical zeta functions and fine structure of correlations. Basic functional analysis and geometry are the only pre-requisites.