

Regulations for educational training courses (before 40th PhD cycle)

PhD students are required to attend 132 hours of lectures according to the following rules:

For PhD students in APP, MAT, NSN and TEO:

- By the end of 1st year: 72 hours from courses offered by the PhD in Physics of the University of Bologna with at least 12 hours from courses of a different curriculum
- By the end of 2nd year: 12 hours of the “Scientific dissemination, management and funding for Physicists” course
- By the end of 3rd year: 48 hours from courses offered by the PhD in Physics of the University of Bologna, PhD Schools, advanced Master courses of the University of Bologna or PhD courses of different PhD programmes, if they feature a final examination.

For PhD students in DID:

- By the end of 2nd year: 36 hours from courses offered by the PhD in Physics of the University of Bologna with at least 12 hours from courses of a different curriculum
- By the end of 2nd year: 12 hours of the “Scientific dissemination, management and funding for Physicists” course
- By the end of 3rd year: 84 hours from courses offered by the PhD in Physics of the University of Bologna, PhD Schools, advanced Master courses of the University of Bologna or PhD courses of different PhD programmes, if they feature a final examination.